

A QUIET wedding on Thursday morning of last week was that of Miss Agnes Wilding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilding of 1099 Bergen street and Mr. John O'Connor, son of Mrs. Katherine O'Connor of St. James' Place. A large church wedding was originally contemplated, but owing to the illness of the bride's mother, plans were changed and the ceremony was performed at half past nine o'clock in St. John's Chapel with only relatives and a few friends present. The Rev. James J. Coan, rector of St. John's Church, officiated. The bride was gowned in white messaline with a bertha of duchesse lace and wore a veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister Miss Rose Wilding, in a gown of pink messaline and large pink hat with plumes to match. Mr. Charles O'Connor the bridegroom's brother, attended as best man, and Mr. Frederick Wilding and Mr. David O'Connor as ushers. A wedding breakfast at the Clarendon followed the ceremony. The guests included several classmates of the bride, who was graduated in the class of '05 at the Adelphi. The bride and groom, who went to the Muskoka Lakes, Canada, on the wedding trip, are to make their home in St. Augustine, Florida.
